Month 1 - Video Overview & Teaching (9 mins)

- 1 This free training comes from a generous grant that was given to the National Association of Evangelicals and your denomination.
- 2 This committee-based online training is designed to be added to your agenda during your regular meetings over the next 6-months.
- 3 Schedule up to 45 minutes in your committee meetings to go through this training experience together. In between your meetings, you will be given free access to valuable resources.
- 4 The course is built around 37 Best Church Generosity Practices that any church can consider doing.
- 5 The average church is currently using anywhere from 10-15 of these 37 practices. Most groups will likely decide on 8-15 best practices that could possibly be a good fit for their church in the future. Every leadership team going can customize their own action plans and scheduling calendar.
- 6 The Personal Finance online course is available for free to anyone to do in the privacy of their own home and on their own schedule at naefinancialhealth.org/partners/fmc-resources
- 7 We want this training to be a powerful life-changing experience for you, your leadership team, and your church. May God use this training to ignite people's faith, inspire generosity, and increase giving at your church.

Sincerely,

Brian Kluth, National Director for NAEfinancialhealth.org

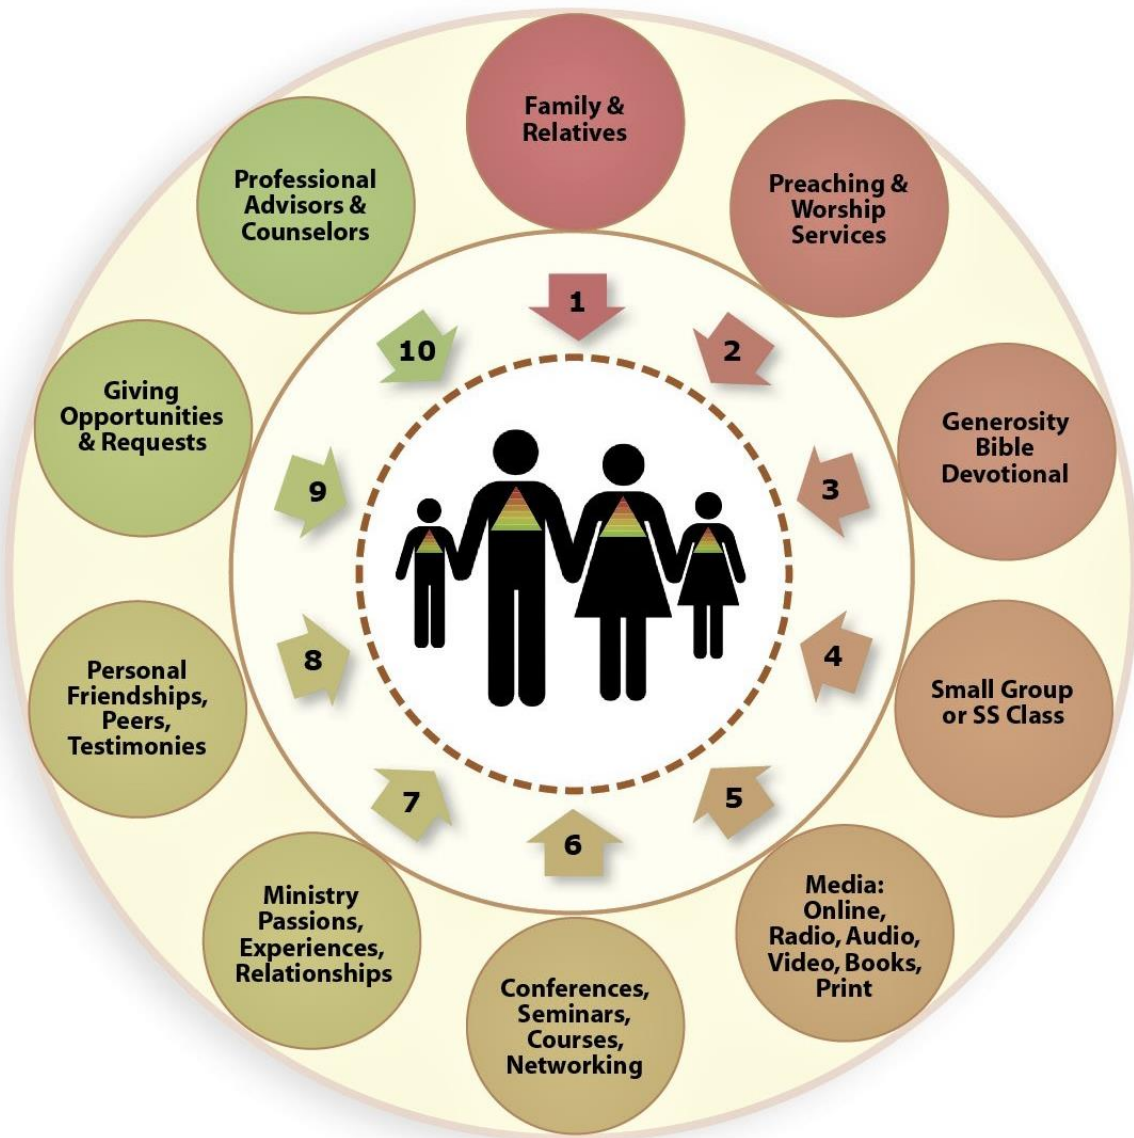

Larry Roberts, COO for Free Methodist Church - USA
