

Training Grant Opportunity for Denominations, Associations and Pastor Networks

Dear Leader:

Are you Interested in blessing your pastors and providing them with valuable training and free resources to help their marriage, finances and church?

As you're aware, many pastors in America often face real challenges in their finances, marriages and church giving. Most of them have never received Biblical, practical and proven financial and generosity training that can be life-changing for their family and church. But help is now available. The National Association of Evangelicals can provide grant-funded leadership training, free resources and gifts for your pastors-spouses for your annual event or gathering.
